INFORMAL LETTER

An informal letter is perhaps the most common of letters. Such letters are written from time to time to deliver good news to people, to convey festival greetings or to enquire about the health of family members and friends or even simply to maintain some contact with a person. These letters are very friendly and casual in their tone.

The form or structure

1. The Address:

The writer's address which should be written at the top left-hand corner of the letter.

For example:

199, Sita Meadows

Badangpet

Hyderabad

2. The Date:

1. 14 April 2020

2. 14 April, 2020

3. 14th April 2020

4. April 14, 2020

Unless mentioned in the question, students should write the same date

On which they are taking examination.

3. Greeting or Salutation

The salutation should be written below the address and date.

To friends, the salutation will be

Dear Mohan

To members of the family

My dear father, my dear mother, my dear sister, my dear brother, etc.

To uncles, aunts, cousins

Dear uncle, dear aunt, dear cousin/Ramu

4. Body of the letter

5. Signature

Now let's go through an example of an informal letter. Similar format should be used for other informal letters as well.

340, Sector 10

Urban Estate

Gurgaon

16th July 2019

Dear sister

please accept my heartiest congratulations on the occasion of your coming birthday. This is for the first time that you won't be with us on your birthday. However, I sincerely wish that you get admission in some good medical college. I know-how hard you have been working for it.

Well, Didi, how do you plan to celebrate your birthday? I wish I were with you. I have bought a small present for you. I hope you will like it.

With lots of best wishes and congratulations.

Yours affectionately

Rahul
